We'll have daily before-breakfast and after-dinner Dance and practice sessions, and either mid-morning or afternoon sessions, depending on the schedule for the cultural experiences and the excursions. For questions about the retreat program, about us, or about our work, you can email us at jilanicordelia@gmail.com, and muiz@sonic.net.

The fee includes retreat tuition, 11 nights shared accommodations in twin/double rooms, vegetarian meals (1 lunch not included), 4 cultural experiences, 3 short excursions, and a 4-day, 3-night journey into the high desert. (Supplement for a single room: £390 GBP).

Jilani Cordelia, from West Yorkshire, UK, was initiated in the Sufi Ruhaniyat by Muiz, in 2006, certified as a DUP Leader in 2008, and is a DUP Leadership Mentor, working with mentees in the UK, Ireland, France, & Spain. In addition to leading DUP at camps and retreats in the UK, she has also taught at the annual summer DUP camp in France (Camp d'Été) for 5 years. She leads a weekly Dance circle at the Heart Centre, and a monthly circle in Hebden Bridge. This is the 3rd retreat she's led at La Maison Anglaise.

Muiz, from northern California, near San Francisco, USA, was initiated into the Sufi Ruhaniyat in 1975, certified as a DUP Leader in '79, and raised to the post of teacher in '96. He has led DUP and Sufi practice at camps, seminars, and retreats around the USA since '79, has mentored other DUP leaders since '87, and has led annually in the UK since 2003. He also works individually with his own Sufi students, and others who feel drawn to his particular approach to Waking Up. He regularly teaches with Jilani Cordelia at the Heart Centre, and attended the 2015 Morocco retreat as a participant.
